A Wonderful Hope!

“For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us,” Romans 8:18.

Where Will You Be On Sunday?

As church attendance numbers fade across the nation and online services become very convenient (who doesn't love not getting ready in the morning or leaving home?!), it's important to remember why church attendance for you and your family matters so much.

You can't serve from your couch. You can't have community of faith on your couch. You can't experience the power of a room full of believers worshipping together on your couch.

Christians aren't consumers either. We are contributors. We don't watch. We engage. We give. We sacrifice. We encourage. We do life together.

The church needs you.
And you need the church.

While we are grateful for technology to keep people connected that can't physically come to a facility or need to be away, it's absolutely not like being in the building. Never will be.

Yes, church on the couch is nice. But it'll never be the same as church face to face. Will we see you at 10:00am? -Hartselle church of Christ

Being Like Jesus Christ

Depression and Discouragement

At some time in our life, we will more than likely be affected by depression. Some common signs/symptoms of depression include feelings of hopelessness, pessimism, worthlessness, and helplessness.

As an example, the prophet Elijah exhibited a deep sense of despondency, discouragement, and sadness that is linked to personal powerlessness and loss of meaning and enthusiasm for life. After defeating the prophets of Baal, he received a death threat from Jezebel (1 Kings 19:2-3). His hope was shattered, and despondency set in to the point that he wanted to die (1 Kings 19:4). However, God helped Elijah deal with his despondency in the following ways: · The Lord did not rebuke him for his despondency, but sent an angel to provide for his physical needs (1 Kings 19:5-8).

The Lord revealed Himself and reminded Elijah that He was quietly working among His people (1 Kings 19:11-14). · He renewed Elijah's mission by giving him new orders (1 Kings 19:15-17).

God reminded Elijah that he wasn't alone (1 Kings 19:18; cf. Romans 11:4).

In times of dark discouragement, God will lead us out of depression by giving us a new spiritual vision, goals to achieve, and the power to achieve them (Luke 24:36-49; Acts 1:4-8.) -Mike Riley

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord” (2 Corinthians 3:18).

Christ was and I must be:

Humble (Phil 2:3- 11; James 4:6)
Forgiving (Luke 23: 24; Mark 11:25)
Zealous (John 9: 4; 2: 17; Titus 2: 14)
Prayerful (Mark 1: 35; 1 Thess. 5: 17)
Compassionate (John 11: 35; Romans 12: 15)
Unretaliatory (Matt. 26: 59; Rom. 12: 17-21)
Submissive (Luke 22: 42; Matt. 6: 10)

Serving (Matt. 20: 28; Matt. 20: 26-27)
Passionate (Luke 19: 41; Romans 9: 1-3)
Giving (Matt. 20: 28; Luke 6: 38) With Paul may we affirm, “So now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (Philippians 1:20,21).

Then, we can sing, and really mean it, “I want to be more like Jesus.”

-Wendell Winkler

“I'll not willingly offend,
Nor be easily offended.
What's amiss, I'll strive to mend,
And endure what can't be amended.”
-Isaac Watts
