JEFF’S JOTTINGS

The Tuesday kids classes (K-6th) will meet again on Tuesday, October 27 at 6 pm. We will also have snacks and games!

Any items you would like to bring for our pantry would be greatly appreciated!

“For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God,” John 3:20-21.

“I, the Lord, search the heart. I test the mind, even to give to each man, according to his ways, according to the result of his deeds,” Jeremiah 17: 10.

Encourage Your Family!

Part of your role as a family member is to be a fan of those with whom you live.

God created you to be a cheerleader for your spouse and children.

E-N-C-O-U-R-A-G-E-M-E-N-T is perhaps the best cheer you can learn!

E is for enthusiasm and energy in supporting causes important to your family members.

N is saying, “Next time, you’ll succeed”

C is for compassion.

O is for open lines of communication.

U is for understanding.

R is for rooting on the team.

A is for arranging your schedule to make time for others in your family.

G is for going the second mile.

E is for entertaining your children’s friends.

M is for modeling a positive attitude.

E is for empowering your child with God’s Word.

N is for never giving up.

T is for time out for hugs and praise.

“E-N-C-O-U-R-A-G-E” your family today and let them know you

“M-E-N-T” it!

Do you ever wonder if you are pleasing to God?

Do you consider if you are living a life that is pleasing to Him?

Jesus stated in John 8:29 that “I always do the things that are pleasing to Him.” God acknowledged that he indeed was pleased with Jesus as the apostle Peter records in 2 Peter 1:17 of the time God spoke from heaven, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

Just as Jesus “was heard because of His reverence” and “although He was a son, He learned obedience through what He suffered” (Hebrews 5:7).

We must also do the following:

1. Revere God and be obedient to his word. “For thus says the Lord: To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose the things that please Me and hold fast My covenant” (Isaiah 56:4). “Whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do what pleases Him” (1 John 3:22).

2. How we conduct ourselves here on earth. “Walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in knowledge of God” (Colossians 1:10). “Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are

pleasing to God” (Hebrews

pleasing to God” (Hebrews 13:16).

3. By preaching the gospel and holding true to it. “For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe” (1 Corinthians 1:21). “But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so to speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts” (1 Thessalonians 2:4).

It is imperative that we get to the business of speaking God’s message only. To please Him, not people, as He will “test our hearts” for such. It is a matter of faith to please God as the Hebrews writer declared that “without faith it is impossible to please him” (Hebrews 11:6). Be encouraged by Proverbs 16:7, “When a man’s ways pleases the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.”

Balance

A plea for balance is often misunderstood. Balance is not found by locating two opposite extremes and staking out the middle ground between them. Instead, it is found by staking out the Biblical truth.

When you do, however, you will find extreme departures in both directions. Extremes in both directions are wrong and often equally harmful. Moses frequently said in the Law, “You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left” (Deut. 5:12).

Balance is not the same as ‘straddling the fence.’ Biblical balance is taking a firm stand for Biblical truth while avoiding both extremes. It is carefully walking in the middle of narrow way, avoiding the ditches on both
