Coming Events

Our 2022 Fall Lectureship Series begins September 7!

Family Matters

Linda McAlpin is now in Selmer in rehab recovering from her hip surgery.
Elizabeth Kirk is recovering after heart surgery last week. Please be praying for her.
The LC McKelvey family, Gene Ross, Ben & Brenda Hall, Dick & Winola Shelton all have been dealing with Covid 19.

Continue to keep our members who are unable to attend in your prayers. Many of them have been unable to attend for a long time now and need any encouragement we can give!

Community Matters

JEFF'S JOTTINGS

Our Question & Answer Box is in the foyer and you can put your Bible questions in any time! They will be answered on the fourth Sunday evening each month.

The Sunday morning Annex Class is now studying Denominational Doctrines and we would love to have you be a part of the class.

“Pay attention, heavens, and I will speak; listen earth to the words of my mouth. Let my teaching fall like rain and my word settle like dew, like gentle rain on new grass and showers on tender plants. For I will proclaim the Lord's name. Declare the greatness of our God!” (Said Moses in Deut. 32:1).

Every generous act and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights; with Him there is no variation or shadow caused by turning.

By His own choice, He gave us a new birth by the message of truth so that we would be the first fruits of His creatures, James 1:17-18.

SHE INVITED A FRIEND!

This is the true story of a four-year old girl. Each Sunday morning and Wednesday night a little girl named Becky would skip out her front door and over to the next door with a tender knock. Becky's question was simply, "Can Denise come to church with us today?" Most of the time the answer was yes. The invitations continued. But one day something was different, Becky made her Sunday morning journey next door, but the answer was no! But the words that followed were music to the ears. "No" the father answered, "Denise will be going with us this morning. We will see you at church services, Miss Becky." The family visited, studies followed, and Denise's mother and father were baptized into Christ!

What is the magic, the mystery, the awe? There is none! Just an invitation given over and over! Some things we make too hard. Some of the easiest things in life we conjure up in difficult messes. Some want sophisticated mail-outs to do it for us! Some sadly enough don't care. Please understand, the benefits of mail-outs, programs, and other avenues are wonderful when used wisely. But nothing dismisses our personal responsibility to invite folks! Who? My neighbor, postman, doctor, mechanic, coach, teacher, friend, parent, child, uncle, aunt, co-worker, partner, boss, banker, and on and on!

Once Jesus freed a young man of some demons. As a result, the young man was dramatically changed. Obviously, he was grateful. He wanted to go with Jesus, perhaps in an effort to repay Him. Jesus' answer spans the generations and applies to us also. He stood by the ship refusing to let the young man go along and said, "Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee" (Mark 5:19).

She was only four. All she did was invite. Heaven will be greater for it!
-David Shannon

Do not pray for easy lives; pray to be stronger men. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers; pray for powers equal to your tasks. Then, the doing of your work shall be no "miracle", but every day you shall wonder at yourself, at the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God.

Three principles to remember:

- 1) I can't handle this.
- 2) God Can!
- 3) I'll let Him!
