An Unbeliever's Question:

“Since God is infinitely good and all-powerful, why doesn't He do away with all evil and violence?”

Bible answer: He is going to do precisely that when Christ returns (2 Peter 3:7).

Another Unbeliever's Question:

“Why is He waiting so long?”

Bible Answer: “He is giving you time and opportunity to repent so that you may not be among the evil that He will destroy (2 Peter 3:8).” -Cecil May, Jr.

Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, Nobody

There was an important job to be done,
Everybody was asked to do it,
Everybody was sure somebody would do it.
Anybody could have done it, but nobody did.
Somebody got very angry about that, Because it was everybody's job.

But, nobody realized that everybody would not do it. It ended up that everybody blamed somebody,
When nobody did what anybody could have done.

A Grandparent's Prayer

Dear Lord,

Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older and will someday be old. Keep me from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject. Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Make me thoughtful but not moody; helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all...but Thou knowest, that I want a few friends at the end.

Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details...give me wings to get to the point. Seal my lips on my aches and pains. They are increasing, and love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter. I dare not ask for improved memory, but a growing humility when my memory seems to clash with the memories of others. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be mistaken. Keep me reasonably sweet. I do not want to be a holier-than-thou saint ...but a sour old person is one of the crowning works for the devil. Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places and talents in unexpected people. Give me the grace to tell them so.

In Jesus' Name, Amen
